

Cost of care

Every donation, large or small, means more patients and families across our community can benefit from our personalised palliative and end of life care.

£6

Physical comfort

Could purchase a hand-held fan to keep patients cool when they suffer from the uncomfortable effects of medication.

£11

Advice Line

Could fund a nurse's time speaking on our telephone Advice Line – reassuring, advising, and guiding patients, families, and health care professionals.

£20

Clinical Support Assistant

Could fund an hour long visit by a Clinical Support Assistant to a patient's home, to offer basic support, therapeutic care and guidance around making decisions at the very end of their life.

£40

Bereavement Support

Could fund a session of Writing through Grief, a one hour, online bereavement support group allowing people to spend time with others going through a similar experience.

£33

Physiotherapy

Could fund an hour-long session with one of our specialist Physiotherapists, using exercise and rehabilitation therapy to improve mobility and manage symptoms such as fatigue, pain and breathlessness.

£78

Emotional Support

Could fund an expert counsellor to run a support group session for young adults with a life-limiting illness, helping them feel less alone.

£123

Nurse Specialists

Could fund a morning of care provided by a Community Nurse Specialist, helping patients manage pain, discomfort, emotional distress and coordinating their care.

£218

Hospice at Home

Could fund a compassionate, skilled and experienced Hospice at Home Carer to provide care overnight, enabling a patient to stay at home at the end of their life.

£1,000

Inpatient Unit

Could fund 24 hours of care for one patient on our Inpatient Unit.

£4,353

Spiritual Support

Could fund the cost of our Spiritual Support service for one month, giving patients and relatives the chance to explore their spirituality at a difficult and emotional time.

£35,000

Care for a day

Could fund the delivery of all our clinical care, research and education services for one day, ensuring we can be there for all those who need us.

Thank you for your generous support
